While, I know class size isn't everything... 25 children per kindergarten class is TOO many young children without assistance. The youngest children would benefit from smaller class sizes to get those foundational skills in place for future learning--academic and behaviorally What are some important things for us to consider as we look to change the elementary attendance boundaries?

Need to look and evaluate the spaces available for each elementary school. You don't want to have to change the boundaries again after a few years. What are some important things for us to consider as we look to change the elementary attendance boundaries?

4.1 ★★★★★ (10)

We don't have room. All of our available spaces have been used as classrooms. That leaves us without adequate space for tech. art, and music. What are some important things for us to consider as we look to change the elementary attendance boundaries?

4.0 ★★★★★ (31)

The number of classes per grade have grown. We have lost our computer lab and our music room to add additional classroom space while neighboring schools have empty classroom space. What are some important things for us to consider as we look to change the elementary attendance boundaries?
